Types of PUCV courses

There are 3 types of courses:

- ✓ General: These courses are offered at the sundry PUCV schools and institutes, and are open to all University students, are taught once per week and are worth 2 teaching hours and 2 credits.
- ✓ Required: These classes are unique to each school and institute, so are exclusive to their corresponding majors. As a result and without exception, students form those majors must take this classes in order to graduate. In addition, required courses can worth up to 4 credits and are taught more than once per week.
- ✓ Elective: Similar to required courses, these are also unique to each school and institute and are also exclusive to their corresponding majors. The difference is that students must choose the elective to complete their coursework. These courses are worth up to 4 credits. Not all electives are required.

IMPORTANT

- ✓ The academic offer attached is yet to be confirmed.
- ✓ Not all lectures are offered in every semester.
- ✓ One month before the semester begins, the confirmed academic offer will be submitted to accepted students. It is recommended that the student chooses a good number of courses to enroll in order to have a higher quantity of lectures to be enrolled in considering possible conflicting schedules.
- ✓ Consider than an Academic Unit may have more than one undergraduate program.
- ✓ If you need further information about a course (program, schedule, contents, or others) send us an e-mail: ivania.yanez@pucv.cl
